

Denver Law Review

Volume 34 | Issue 2

Article 2

May 2021

Convention Information

Alfred Heinicke

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.du.edu/dlr>

Recommended Citation

Alfred Heinicke, Convention Information, 34 Dicta 67 (1957).

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Denver Law Review at Digital Commons @ DU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Denver Law Review by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ DU. For more information, please contact jennifer.cox@du.edu, dig-commons@du.edu.

CONVENTION INFORMATION

The 59th Annual Convention of The Colorado Bar Association will be held October 17 through 19, 1957, at the Broadmoor Hotel, Colorado Springs. The following procedures will be strictly observed in the handling of reservations for this convention.

1. All requests for reservations must be sent to the Secretary of The Colorado Bar Association, 525 Mile High Center, Denver.

2. No block reservations will be recognized, but each member of the Association desiring reservations must send in his own request by United States mail.

3. Each reservation request must be accompanied by a deposit of $17. This deposit will not be credited to the hotel bill (the Broadmoor has a policy against accepting advances on room rent) but will cover a registration fee of $7 and one ticket each to the Friday and Saturday luncheons ($2.50 each), the Saturday Night Banquet ($4), the President's Reception on Thursday night, the Denver Law Club Show on Friday night, and the Grand Ball on Saturday night.

4. In making your request for accommodations at the Broadmoor, please specify (1) the type of room desired, (2) how many will be in your party, (3) the dates of arrival and departure. Plan to arrive early. This year the President's Reception will be on Thursday night.

5. On April 15, 1957, all requests for reservations then in the Secretary's office will be opened simultaneously. If the total number of requests accompanied by a proper deposit does not exceed the number of rooms which the Broadmoor can make available, all will be filled. If such requests exceed the number of rooms available, the rooms will be allocated to the various local bar associations, prorated according to the membership of each association. Associations having more requests for reservations than rooms assigned may select by lot, or otherwise, the registrants to be approved. Such selection would be made by the local bar association involved, with the results certified to the Secretary of The Colorado Bar Association.

6. Letters requesting reservations will be sent by the Secretary to the Broadmoor Hotel when approved in the above manner. The Hotel will be responsible for the actual assignment of rooms.

7. Deposits will be returned to those not receiving reservations unless they desire to leave their requests on file in the hope of obtaining a reservation canceled by another. Those leaving their deposits with the Bar Association Secretary will receive preference in the assignment of canceled reservations.

8. After a reservation is confirmed NO DEPOSIT WILL BE RETURNED UNLESS A CANCELLATION IS RECEIVED PRIOR TO SEPTEMBER 15, 1957.

No advance deposit will be required of members who do not request reservations at the Broadmoor Hotel. Ample accommodations are available elsewhere in Colorado Springs, and the Convention Committee will provide information at a later date to anyone desiring such facilities.

Requests for accommodations at the Broadmoor Hotel will now be received by the Bar Association Secretary.

CONVENTION COMMITTEE OF THE
COLORADO BAR ASSOCIATION
Alfred Heinicke, Chairman